

EXPECTS TO MOVE REVENUE OFFICE

Collector Callister Thinks Utah
Will Win Out.

SEN. CARTER'S FIGHT

CALLISTER SENDS ARGUMENT TO WASHINGTON.

Internal Revenue Collector Callister has returned from Helena, after a stay of three weeks in the Montana capital. Mr. Callister has the slightest doubt but that the office of the collector will be moved to Salt Lake within the next three weeks. He says the Senator of Montana is making a hard fight to keep the headquarters in Helena, but it is a losing fight.

Senator Carter filed a protest in Washington with the Revenue Commissioner some time ago against the removal of the office, said Mr. Callister. "But don't think it will avail him anything. The department is not going to send out a special man to investigate the case, but will leave it to Agent Fletcher, who transferred the office from Mr. Webster to me."

"Of course I don't know what Mr. Fletcher's report will be, but he told me that Salt Lake was far and away the best place for the main office. At his suggestion I wrote out an argument on the matter and sent it to Washington. I pointed out that Salt Lake has over three times the population of Helena and that it is rapidly growing, while Helena, according to the census reports, is going backward. Idaho is a sparsely settled place where most of the business is done by mail. We have much better mail facilities in Salt Lake than Helena has. Sixty-five per cent of the Montana business is done in Butte and the immediate vicinity. I wrote the department that with a deputy at Butte and another at Helena the interests of the office could not suffer."

"Another consideration is the office room. At Helena there is far too little space. Many valuable books and papers which should be kept in a vault are now kept in closets because there is no vault room. I was informed that the Helena office is the best that can be secured for the allowance of $1,000 per year. I can get much more commodious quarters in the joint building here for the same amount of money."

"These and other arguments were submitted to Mr. Yerkes, and I feel certain that he will endorse the change. The Montana people are very much interested in my stay there, but I don't care to become a citizen of that state in order to hold the collectorship. My family is here and my interests are here, and it will cause me much inconvenience if the headquarters are not brought to Salt Lake."

Mr. Callister spent several hours yesterday afternoon in consultation with Senator Kearns over the proposed change of the office. At the conclusion of the conference Senator Kearns said he felt very sure the change would be made. "Senator Carter is putting up a good fight," Senator Kearns went on, "but in my judgment he is going to lose it. He is a very gentlemanly man and it will take some work for us to beat him. Still, when a little more red tape has been unwound things will come out."

Collector Callister expects to remain in Salt Lake a week or ten days.

AT THE RESORTS.

About 300 members of the Salt Lake State primaries held an excursion and outing at Saltair yesterday afternoon. The program began about 2:30 p. m. with a religious service by Rev. J. H. Gray, of Christensen's orchestra, followed by a musical sketch given by Miss Ethel Deesley.

Professor Bert's juvenile orchestra gave several selections, and the program was made by Miss Rena Bray in a German, city dance, and a song. A flag drill by sixteen children from the second ward primary, representing four nations, was the feature of the afternoon, and much credit is due the director, Mrs. Blissett.

A grand ball for the children kept things moving until sunset, when a concert on the water was given by the juvenile orchestra. A grand ball starting at 8 p. m. wound up the proceedings. In the guessing contest over how many pennies were in the jar, Miss Mattie Jones came first among the gentler sex while Raymond Ashton won first prize for the boys.

The committee having charge of the affair were: Mrs. Milla Bassett, Mrs. Mary Tuckman, Miss Chamberlain, Mrs. Joseph E. Williams, and Miss Kate Wells, chairman. The young people had the best time of their lives, swimming and regatta, while away an hour or two in the commencement of the grand ball.

William Pickering and A. E. Jarman, representing the Forks in Provo canyon on Sunday making arrangements for the labor excursion to be run from the city to that place on Aug. 11. The men are enthusiastic about the prospect for a successful outing on that occasion.

Veterans of the Indian wars held a meeting in the sheriff's office in the city and county building last night to discuss plans for the annual summer regatta. The meeting was called to order at 8:30 p. m. by Chairman J. H. Gray, and was decided to have the outing at the Legion on a date to be set later. The following committee on arrangements was appointed last night, with instructions to report Saturday afternoon: Sheriff's office: O. P. Arnold, chairman; C. H. Banks, George W. Orr and A. M. Paul. The meeting was then adjourned until next Saturday night.

OPPOSES STREET PAVING.

Injunction Proceedings Threatened by a Property Owner.

The council street committee met as a board to equalize the paving assessments on West Second South street and on Third South street yesterday afternoon. Daniel Ever, who owns some West Second South street property, made a vigorous protest against doing the work at all. He said the city had no right to do the work without the consent of the property owner. The committee made no charge and if he thought an injunction would help him, he was free to try it. No equalizations were necessary yesterday. The board will meet again on Friday to consider the state board of equalization in the Dooly block in the next three days.

PROTEST OF SHEEPMEN.

Forest Reserve Order Will Entail Great Hardship.

Jesse M. Smith of Layton and E. H. Callister, representing the Utah Woolgrowers' association, will hold a meeting with Senator Kearns today for the purpose of securing if possible a modification of the recent order of the interior department which practically drives out all the sheep from the Uintah forest reserves. Major Bucher, superintendent of the forest reserves in this section, will be at the conference.

The order referred to is one prohibiting sheep from ranging where there is any shade on government land. This practically means that sheep are to be driven out of the state. Major Bucher says his orders are imperative and unless they are countermanded he will proceed at once. It is expected that as a result of today's

Tabernacle Secured for the Philippine Encampment.

The executive committee of the national encampment, Army of the Philippines, was jubilant yesterday over the receipt of a tender from President Snow of the use of the tabernacle and Assembly hall for the meetings of the encampment. The Assembly hall will be used for the daily meetings, and the great patriotic meeting to be held on the evening of Aug. 13 will be in the tabernacle.

The committee is working very industriously, and during the past few days has mailed a great deal of advertising matter over the country. Business Manager Meyers has received a dozen letters from various parts of Idaho giving assurances that there will be no delegation from that state. There will be four bands in attendance, and it is the aim to make a patriotic and a great feature of the encampment.

The Elks and all local civic orders are going to turn out in the big parade. The committee desires it understood that all discharged volunteers, no matter from what regiment they come, are eligible to membership in the Society of the Army of the Philippines, and to all is extended a cordial invitation to attend the encampment.

Young Shurtliff Held on Charge of Murder.

Frank Shurtliff, the young man who was given a hearing in Judge Dana T. Smith's court a few days ago on a charge of murdering Mrs. Jane Wilson, was bound over yesterday to the district court, to answer to a charge of murder in the second degree. When the preliminary hearing was concluded a few days ago Judge Smith took the matter under advisement to decide whether the youthful shooting man, in a heated moment, had committed the crime, or whether the shooting was the result of a premeditated design.

The Shurtliff family is a well-to-do one, and the young man is a student at the University of Utah. He is a native of Idaho, and has been in Salt Lake for some time. He is a well-known person in the community, and his family is well-to-do.
